Case studies are investigations of actions that changed a situation, that changed what was considered possible, and/or that showcase new and exciting principles or tactics that activists in other contexts could learn from and adapt.

CASE STUDY: Title

When: [date]

Where: [location]

What:

[What happened and why it's significant: 500 words or less.]

Why it worked:

[~100 word overview of why the case study is exemplary/instructive/effective.]

[Optional] What didn't work:

[If any important lessons leap out because of things that went wrong, include a brief write-up about them here.]

Key TACTIC used:

TitleOfFirstKeyTactic:

[50words.]

[Optional] TitleOfSecondKeyTactic:

[50words.]

Other TACTICS used:

[Simple list of other related tactics.]

Key PRINCIPLES at work:

[Drawing from the master list of principles, provide 1 to 4 ~50-word write-ups of key principles, explaining how the relevant principles were used to make the action a success. Note that the principle itself will be fully explained elsewhere, so there's no need to explain it in depth; focus instead on how it applies in this particular case. If your preferred principle is not on the list, check in w/ editors, and we might add it.]

TitleOfFirstKeyPrinciple:

[50words.]

[Optional] TitleOfSecondKeyPrinciple:

[50words.]

[Optional] TitleOfThirdKeyPrinciple:

[50words.]

Other PRINCIPLES at work:

[Simple list of other related principles.]

[Optional] Key THEORY at work:

[Drawing from the master list of theories, provide a ~50 word write-up of the most relevant theory used in this case study. Note that the theory itself will be fully explained elsewhere, so there's no need to explain it in depth; focus instead on how it applies in this particular case. If your preferred theory is not on the list, check in w/ editors, and we might add it.]

Other THEORIES at work:

[Simple list of theories that have been applied.]

PRACTITIONERS:

[Simple list of relevant practitioner(s).]

Learn more:

[Links to particularly relevant content offline and online.]

Contributed by:

[author (i.e. YOU).]